

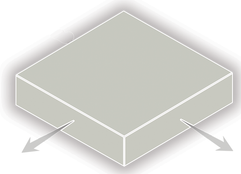
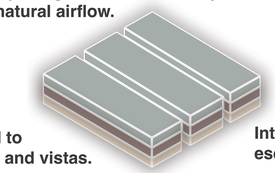
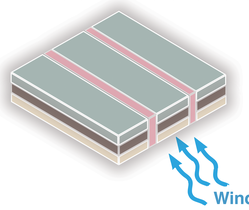
A solid block representing the building.



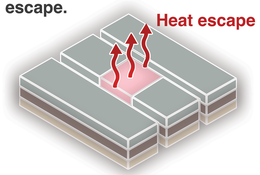
Openings introduced to improve natural airflow.



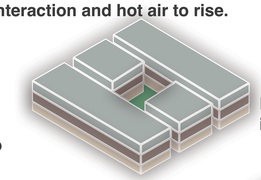
Two divisions introduced to facilitate wind movement and vistas.



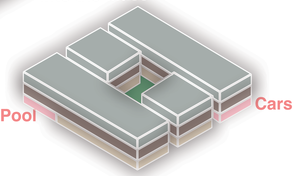
Introduce a void to allow heat to escape.



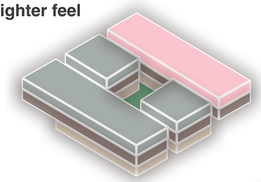
Void creates a courtyard in the middle, allowing social interaction and hot air to rise.



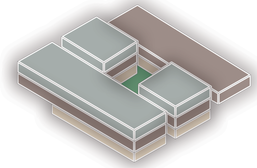
Pool and Car spaces introduced into the mass



Mass is minimized to create a lighter feel



The Final composition has balanced solids and voids



CONCEPTS

